Tricia “Trisch” Garthoeffner, ABV, CVA, MAFF, EA, MAcc, is the founder and managing member of Anchor Business Valuations & Financial Services, LLC. She has over 20 years of experience providing business valuation, financial consulting, and forensic analysis services across a broad range of industries and engagement types.

Trisch holds the Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV) designation through the AICPA and the Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA) and Master Analyst in Financial Forensics (MAFF) designations through NACVA. She is also an Enrolled Agent (EA), authorized to represent taxpayers before the Internal Revenue Service, and serves as a court-certified and regularly appointed expert witness in valuation and financial matters. She earned her Master of Accountancy (MAcc) with a concentration in business valuation.

Trisch previously held FINRA Series 7, 62, 63, and 72 licenses and spent approximately 10 years in investment banking and private equity on Wall Street. This experience provides a strong foundation for her active involvement in merger and acquisition (M&A) consulting. She also maintains Florida licensure to assist clients with select transaction engagements.

She has held numerous leadership roles within NACVA, including Standards Board (SDB) Member (2020), SDB Vice President (2021), SDB Board Chair (2022), and SDB Advisor (2024). She was the recipient of the NACVA Outstanding Member Award in 2023 and previously served as President of the NACVA Florida State Chapter.

Trisch is a frequent speaker and author on valuation and financial topics. She is a recurring presenter for Current Updates in Valuation and Industry Standards Update webinars, a Board Member and quarterly contributor to NACVA’s QuickRead publication, and a member of the Young Professionals Committee. She is also a contributing editor and author of Fundamentals, Techniques & Theory.

Her additional professional involvement includes serving as Secretary of the Association of Family Law Professionals (2023–2025), Treasurer of the Florida Academy of Collaborative Professionals, and Vice President of the Southwest Florida Chapter of Collaborative Professionals, where she remains an active member.

Most recently, Trisch was a contributing author to The Art of Valuation, a publication of The Appraisal Foundation (released Fall 2023), assisted in the redevelopment of a NACVA training textbook scheduled for release in Fall 2025 and is the co-chair of NACVA’s annual Business Valuation and Financial Litigation Super Conference taking place in Salt Lake City, Utah in October of 2026.
